You can fill out the census form by mail, on the internet, or over the phone.

- Fill out the form online.
  You can fill out the online form on any computer or mobile device, at your house, at a library, at work, or at a friend’s house.

- Fill out the form over the phone.
  The Census Bureau phone service will be offered in English, Spanish and a number of other languages.

- Fill out a paper form.
  If you do not complete the census online or by phone, a paper questionnaire will be mailed to your address.

In March 2020, every mailing address in the United States will receive a letter from the U.S. Census requesting that you provide the following information:
- How many people are living in your home on April 1, 2020
- Whether your home is owned or rented
- Gender, race, age, ethnic group, and relationship status

Every person in the U.S., both citizens and non-citizens, is required by law to fill out the 2020 Census form, which you can do using a mailed-in form, the U.S. Census webpage, or phoning the Census Bureau. You will not be asked if you are a U.S. citizen.
