

WATERBURY RESIDENTIAL TRAFFIC CALMING STUDY

Let's Make Waterbury's Residential Streets Safer

With support from the NVCOG, Waterbury is pursuing a comprehensive strategy for implementing residential street traffic calming interventions across the city.

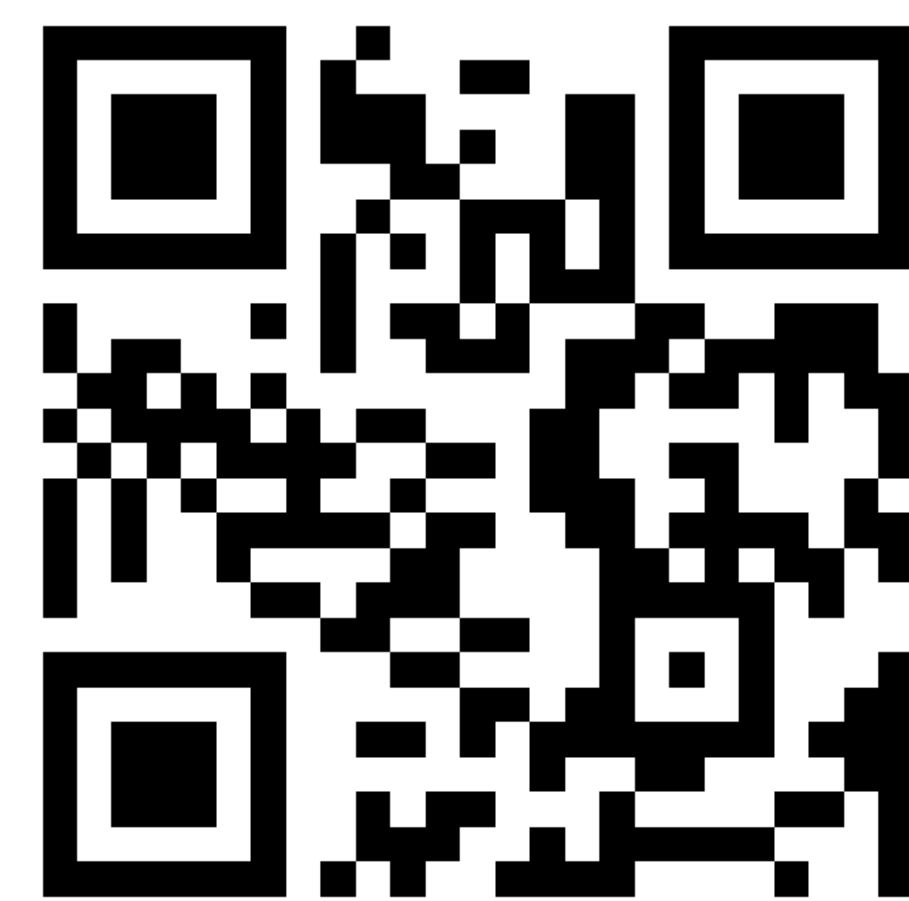

The agency will develop a sample policy and guidebook that outlines how Waterbury may best address road safety concerns and respond to resident requests.

Get Involved

The NVCOG published an online survey to learn about your perspectives on traffic safety interventions and request processes in Waterbury.
